

5 November 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training
SUBJECT : Support School Weekly Report

A. ADMINISTRATIVE TRAINING

1. Field Finance and Logistics

Field Finance and Logistics Course No. 3-72 started on Monday, 1 November, with an enrollment of fifteen students. One student dropped out on Wednesday because he had missed the entire first day - through no fault of his. He will be enrolled in the next class.

2. Clerical Orientation

The twenty-minute presentation on the CIA library incorporated in the Clerical Orientation program last August has been eliminated. Instead, arrangements have been made for new employees to go to the Headquarters library for a more detailed, forty-minute presentation and tour following their week of Orientation.

3. Clerical Induction

As a result of a review of Clerical Training procedures, the Office of Personnel has been notified that as of 1 November new employees will be released from class for polygraph interviews during the first week of induction training, thus making it possible to expedite a new employee's clearance for assignment. Heretofore it had been our policy to release students for polygraphing only after they had completed the first week of Induction training.

B. MANAGEMENT TRAINING

1. Fundamentals of Supervision and Management

The second Fundamentals of Supervision and Management Course was conducted on 1-5 November. The class was attentive and receptive throughout the week. There were 31 students (12 women) with a grade range from GS-05 to GS-14. All Directorates were represented.

2. Support Services Review: Trends and Highlights

The thirty-second presentation of the Support Services Review: Trends and Highlights Course was successfully given during the week of Approved For Release 2002/06/17 : CIA-RDP78-06363A000300070019-5

1 November at the [redacted] Enrollment totaled 46, 25X1A6b
